

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 23.

Ten years ago Thomas F. Clark jokingly gave Miss Julia A. Malcom of New Haven a deed of certain Colorado lands, which he thought to be valueless. She said that she'd keep the document to remember him by, and has since been earning her living teaching school. The other day she received a letter from Colorado, saying that there was a lead mine on her property, and $250,000 was offered for it. Miss Malcom thought it a joke, but finding that it wasn't, she accepted the offer, and the check is on its way East.

Jack Franklin, an old colored porter in a Louisville tobacco warehouse, was sent into the cellar to remove a pile of dirt that had been long accumulating. While at work he picked up a battered army canteen, very heavy. He broke it open, and found $362.50 in nickels, dimes, paper quarters and half dollars, gold dollars, and $5 gold pieces. No one knows whose the money is, and the old man is richer than he ever expected to be.

Fifteen years ago Jefferson Miller, of Jeffersonville, Ind., while feeding a threshing machine saw a rat run across the barn floor. In turning to watch the rat he permitted his left hand to be pulled into the machine and it was torn off. The other day while again feeding a threshing machine in the same barn a rat ran between his feet. He kicked at it and slipped, and his right hand was caught and torn off.

Stranger than Fiction are the records of some of the cures of consumption effected by that most wonderful remedy—Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery." Thousands of grateful men and women, who have been snatched almost from the very jaws of death, can testify that consumption, in its early stages, is no longer incurable. The Discovery has no equal as a pectoral and alterative, and the most obstinate affections of the throat and lungs yield to its power. All druggists.
